

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

What do you wish for our community and our library? What would improve the quality of life in Mid-Missouri? How can the library help?

As the Daniel Boone Regional Library develops plans for the future, we want to hear your ideas, hopes and priorities for our community and our library.

We'll listen to what we hear from you and use your input to find ways the library can bring about positive change that advances our community. We'll share what we learn and the resulting strategic plan.

Other ways to participate at www.dbrl.org/conversations

- Take our short online survey.
- See a full list of other public meetings.
- Hold a Community Conversation of your own with friends or family. We have a discussion packet to guide you.
